

ÇATES ELEKTRİK ÜRETİM A.Ş. Integrated Management System Policy

Çatalağzı Thermal Power Plant, within the scope of Quality, Environment, Health, Energy and Safety Integrated Management System, undertakes to;

- Implement the Total Quality approach,
- Promote process-based and risk-focused thinking and management by objectives,
- Ensure the common interests of its customers, employees and suppliers by adhering to sustainability criteria,
- Be respectful to the environment and sensitive to the protection of the environment and cultural heritage,
- Reduce our waste, recover it, prevent pollution and act with the awareness of a sustainable environmental by ensuring the effective use of our process inputs and energy resources,
- Prevent injuries and health problems,
- Place utmost importance on the health, safety and security of all individuals and companies that works with us and visitors to achieve success,
- Strive to achieve continuous improvement in energy performance
- Choose environmentally friendly and energy efficient products and services,
- Consider energy efficiency in investment and design activities,
- Provide information, human resources, technologies and financial resources that will ensure the continuity of the system
- Provide equal opportunities to our employees to increase sustainable productivity and employee loyalty,
- Create an organization that learns, constantly develops and shares by placing importance on education and making it constant,
- Ensure the participation of all employees in development by promoting multi-directional communication,
- Ensure the reduction and elimination of OHS risks arising from potentially dangerous situations and behaviors,
- Promote the consultation and participation of all employees,
- Implement, develop and continuously improve the effectiveness of Quality, Environment, Occupational Health and Safety, Energy management systems.
- Comply with the legislation, standards, directives and rules of affiliated organizations and contracts signed within the scope of its field of activity.
- Provide services to the society with our understanding of social responsibility and continue cooperating,
- Develop our sustainability strategies without deviating from anti-corruption principles by acting in accordance with ethical rules,

Çates Elektrik Üretim A.Ş.'s policy will always be open to informing the public.

HAMDİ ALP

GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THERMAL POWER PLANTS